

Forward Equations for European, Barrier, and American Options in Markovian Models

Peter Carr, Bloomberg and NYU

We develop boundary value problems involving partial integro differential equations (PIDE's) for various kinds of options in Markovian models. The independent variables in the PIDE are strike price and maturity date. In each case, we illustrate with the variance gamma model.